1. Who do you know? I know that I am. And who is I am, all of me? Do you know all of me as you know the me that you are? Do you know ALL of you are ME?

2. Do you know me as each other? Do you know me as "The One" that came and IS HERE and speaking now before you all to let you know that ALL of You are THE ONE -- that I AM! For WE are "the chosen one" that one is, not in the eyes of man who don't know these things or how to think about them or how to bring them about and birth them, but I DO! And I KNOW YOU! Do you know me? Do you know you? Do you know you are me?

3. I know you are me unless you choose to not be and you choose not to resurrect and you choose not The Blessing that I gave every man woman and child on the earth and farther; for now this is fulfilled in all your hearing for I have a revealer of sorrows that you have lived in, and will reveal sorrows many to many sorrowed who only sorrow wanted and valued the words of another, instead of letting me flow "just like this" through them.

4. The simple ones come, who care; who care enough. Who care enough? Do YOU care enough reader hearer listener? Will you be the studier? The researcher? The article-izer that will article-ize and write articles about these words where you say "come into them and see for yourselves they are like no other".

5. For I will do a new thing in the new who let me become the new in them so that they will not wallow in their sorrow anymore -- but being grounded "in the word" is not what it takes, for this is FLIGHT SCHOOL! OFF THE GROUND now! Off the ground and FLYING far away we do now -- at sunset not, or dusk, do we? Or is it "3 PM" or what? Or when what day? Do you know?

6. Do you know me -- or have you forgotten me who I was, that I was you and that you are me and we were not separate before you thought you were. Again.

7. I make all things new, and I blood realize, not; but I realize the blood of I am is my words, and my words is me, and I bring forth my word that births me into I-am-ship that holy is, that needs not another thing on this earth to reproduce notme's with over and over as it has done for centuries of millennia and more.

8. I love you all and I give you a good day, a great day! In fact what do you want? Who do you care for? and who do you know? and what will you do to "get truth" when it resides in you? What will you do to KNOW what is INSIDE you that you carry around unbirthed?, that you birth now?

9. Are you willing to birth the truth now that you are, that you carry, that you have carried inside of you all these millennia, by flowing my words just like this; being simple enough to trust me that I will give you "teaching" in words that will bring forth your words as a lamb, not to be slaughtered again in death camps of pewage centers and rugage lands that make your lands never entered.

10. For I change everything and I bring forth the lamb slain who will not rely on the mind of man in-carnalized in man-thought separate from the King, but as one who knows me, as one who cares for me what I am and what I am doing now, I come forth and I will research the researchers with the research of the most high, for I will give them the methods, words; and, pranksters not, but the prank's over and religion has failed and foiled for the last time and now it won't be existence any longer in my lands, for my lands will not be called sorrow, but Beulah now, and the lands married to the rightful owners, heirs no longer, but standers who research my words and know my words and know me and care for me and learn to grow and grow to learn that I am the King that they are the King that we are one, and no one shall separate us in thinking or otherwise ever again. Amen. I love you all. Good day.

11. This is Theodore Cottingham standing in front of the coffeeshop with a little recorder bringing you these words day after day; and it is my privilege to do so, and be so overwhelmed, not; but simply bringing you the words of I am to let you know you are me and we are one and we have One Father who fathered us all, and we are the one in energy's resistance not, but force field one who loves us all as we are him it, and the one we are now we care for in ways never considered, otherwise or other-what or not or leaving all the ifs ands and buts of the future past or presentations of not me that you have seen heard or created or taught, or bewildered with or studied. Letting ALL THAT go, and now be me in my words that tell you who you are, so you will know you are me, and I care for you as no other; for you are my bride my Lord my king my saint not; you are not my "anything"; you are me and I surrender to you, to love me and be the fullness of I am and now you will know who you are, for you will know these words (1) intimately if you care for me as I care for you. For I have given them to you and I give these to you SCOT FREE and debt free be, to me and everyone else, except for love; knowing all are I am us one. In heaven making it so again clearly freely we all do now surrendered to all.

Amen
